Paintballing. Not just paintballing but 'this st gets real' tactical ops paintballing. Where there are weapons, battlefields, missions, mud and chaos. Pretty much a 'must have' on any Best Mans list of Bucks Do antics. The only pausing is to stuff down some pizza and then head back onto the fields – no rest for the debaucherous. We have taken the fun part of being Called to Duty and conveniently forgotten about having to sleep in trenches and eat from cans. My Ultimate Bucks Sydney is responsible for your enjoyment, not your safety or welfare.

MY ULTIMATE BUCKS

MORE DETAILS

Your Commanding Officer will escort your motley troops to the Armoury where you enter looking like boys and come out prepared as men. State of the art equipment with Custom Paintball Weapons, Camo Overalls and an epic 1000 Paintballs each. Stocks and Tactical Vests, Riot Shields...the works. You can also bring Tutu's, Wigs and Mankinis...Ok, well most of you will look like men but one of you may just look like a joke. That's the price you pay for getting married though.

Differing scenarios await your motley Sydney Bucks Party Paintball Crew featuring professional Speedball bunkers, cars, huts, bridges, buses, towns, deep woods, bridges, forts, towers, machine gun nests and more. Strategically planned assignment based games and detailed fields maps enables your Team Bravo to plan and execute special missions ranging from search and rescue, riot shield squads, demolition squads, tactical suppression's and juggernauts. You may attempt to pass through the pyramid and sphinxes, reach the real USAF aircraft and missile silos, or even battle it out in a wild west town where the action takes you through the likes of a saloon. It is the ultimate game of strategy, speed and stealth combined with tactics, teamwork and tenacity and a bit of resolve and determination thrown in because they are more cool words.

After many hours of rolling in mud and hiding behind tree stumps, getting shot at and having to run for your life it is time to relinquish your weapons for a quick bite. Pizza all round. And not just a slice or two each – a full pizza, because MEN. Lunch is time for the group photo shot and to rest those bruised egos and bodies before the next round reigns in. Game on.

A truly all inclusive bucks party day with enough kit, ammo and food to ensure no man shall have to lift his wallet on the day. Put all our hard work to good use and give yourself an easier life – we think you deserve it as much as your Buck deserves a legendary Sydney Bucks Party.

So there you have it. It's an Ultimate Sydney Bucks night that makes legends of Best Men, with tales mistaken for myth as they are just so damn perfect. Bask in the glory of giving your mate an awesome send off and give us a call on 1300339734. Best Man Job Done.
